

Primer Usage Chart

PRIMER TYPE	PRODUCT TYPE	PRODUCT USAGE	PART # BOXED	PART # IN APS STRIPS	APS STRIP COLOR CODE
Shotshell	209	A general purpose shotshell primer for most field and target loads.	0008	—	—
	209M†	A true Magnum shotshell primer for waterfowl and heavy field loads.	0009	—	—
Small Rifle	400	For most standard loads in cases requiring small rifle primers.	0013	0080	yellow
	450 Mag†	Magnum primer for ball propellants.	0017	0081	blue
	No.41/5.56MM	Military small rifle primer with NATO sensitivity.	0001	—	—
	BR4	Benchrest small rifle primer for critical accuracy needs.	0019	0082	black
	200	For most standard loads in cases requiring large rifle primers.	0011	0086	yellow
Large Rifle	250 Mag†	Magnum primer for large-capacity cases and/or ball propellants.	0015	0087	blue
	No. 34/7.62MM	Military large rifle primer with NATO sensitivity.	0002	—	—
	BR2	Benchrest large rifle primer for critical accuracy needs.	0010	0088	black
	500	For most handgun cartridges requiring a small pistol primer.	0014	0078	white
Small Pistol	550 Mag†	For heavy loads using ball propellants.	0018	0079	red
Large Pistol	300	For most handgun cartridges requiring a large pistol primer.	0012	0084	white
	350 Mag†	For heavy loads using ball propellants.	0016	0085	red
Muzzleloading	209	Reduced fouling when used with blackpowder substitutes.	0307	—	—
	#10	A special percussion cap for revolvers fitted with #10 nipples.	0309	—	—
Percussion Caps	#11	Our general-purpose percussion cap for most rifles and handguns.	0311	—	—
	#11 Magnum	A hotter #11 cap for reliable ignition of replica black powders.	0310	—	—
	Four Wing Musket Caps	Designed especially for reenactment.	0301	—	—
50 Caliber BMG	No.35	A modern MIL-SPEC primer for the 50 caliber BMG cartridge.	0320	—	—

All CCI primers, including our muzzleloading products, are non-mercuric and non-corrosive.

† — Safety Note: use Magnum primers only when specified in published load data.

The 41's and 34's contain Magnum priming mix and should be treated as such.